Dear Parents,

The only purpose and motive of our life is not just to be happy and contented with what we acquire. It is to be useful, to be honourable, to be compassionate and to have a satisfaction in your heart that you have lived and lived well. Never wait for good things to happen to you. If you go out and make some good things happen, you will fill yourself and the world with hope. Always remember that there is no exercise better for the heart than reaching down and lifting people up. Love all and help others rise to the higher levels, simply by pouring out love. "Keep helping others to achieve their dreams and you will definitely achieve yours".

God Bless Us All!

Parent's Message:

As a parent, I really want to thank BLPS for creating an environment of enthusiasm for learning, appreciation for growing and room for making and developing good habits. Future of our children is successfully being shaped by the remarkable teachers. With their hardwork, they are making a great difference for our children. I really appreciate their teaching, love and care and most especially their being the second parents.

With Sincerest Appreciation

A Step on The Ramp:

Kindergartners were made to understand the role of Community Helpers in our lives. Dressing up and acting like a doctor, Farmer, policeman etc not only improved the confidence level of our nursery students but also made them more sensitive towards others.

Visit to Hospital

As children built upon literacy and developed vocabulary, they also learnt about community and community helpers. To execute the Theme of the fortnight (Community helpers) KG-II students visited Ragini Hospital.

Impression painting competition :

At BLPS, importance of developing fine motor skills of children is endorsed as a foundation stone. The soothing process of painting is often what is interesting to children. KG Wing showcased their motor skills in Impression painting competition using themes like thumb and finger printing. Candies, Capsicums and onions were the tools which children used to articulate their skills.

KG-I students made and presented 'Thank You' cards to community helpers to recognize and acknowledge their services to community.

Thanking everyone with a smile.....

What's more fun for young children than acting like grown-ups? Teaching kindergarten students about community helpers is an important unit, and one all students will enjoy. Kindergarteners love to dress up and pretend. Think of people who make our community a better place - who are the people who come to mind? These will be people who have occupations that make life better for all around them. Many community workers have easily identifiable work attire or clothes, thus become important clues of what they can do. By participating in dramatic play with costumes and acting out behaviors of community helpers, children develop important social/emotional skills and are more comfortable with uniforms. It helps them understand the world around them and their place in it. It's important for children to learn their role in a community and that there are safe, friendly people to help them if they get sick or have an emergency. Sometimes, you can use these uniforms as visual clues to just go up and thank a community helper for the service they provide to society. These men and women will greatly appreciate being acknowledged by others for the important roles that they play.

Song of the Month:

I see a fire fighter fighting fires
I see a car mechanic changing tyres
I see a pilot flying through the air
I see a barber cutting people's hair
I see the people in my town
And I say hey brother
What's going down?
