DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Simrita Bawa

Dear Children,

On the threshold of 2020 I would like to request you to be mindful about stress and get rid of it! Any kind of stress, be it exam stress, traffic jam stress, peer stress etc. Always count your blessings! There are many instances where you are pressed for time and you seem to have no immediate solution. True sense of calmness is to beat this 'waiting stress', by simply enjoying the waiting time instead of getting angry. Try this: Just observe your surroundings and watch them quietly. Watch people walk by in their normal routine. Spend time in your garden. Listen to music, it will help you switch to a better frame of mind. Keep a sketch pad to doodle your thoughts. Do whatever you enjoy but try not to get upset and make your body pay the price for an over anxious mind. Happy Holidays!
Best wishes for a peaceful New Year.
